

Associate Member Application

The Illinois Association of Regional Councils (ILARC) welcomes membership from regional councils, as well as, corporations, academic, not-for-profits, civic organizations and individuals who are interested in being part of planning efforts across Illinois. By becoming an associate of ILARC, you have a unique opportunity to share ideas and resources with the leaders of Illinois' regional planning agencies. You will have contact with a large network of state and local government professionals as they work together to address such common challenges as transportation, economic development and growth. Each associate member plays an active role in the mission of ILARC.

Benefits of Associate Membership
